

PLEASE POST TO BULLETIN BOARD

THE HUMOROUS SIDE OF LAW ENFORCEMENT

A 320 page book of 70 funny stories as experienced by Harry Penny and several other officers he knew in his 21 years of law enforcement. These are stories that just about every peace officer can relate to and get a laugh. Stories like: The Black and White Taxi Company, Where's the Top of My Car?, The Hand Cuff Song....altogether wild and funny.

These are tales told in locker-rooms, squad-rooms and places where cops congregate. Some of the stories have cartoons drawn by Harry's partner, Claude Anderson, exclusively for this book. Give yourself a gift and ENJOY A LAUGH with this book...it's a kick in the pants. To learn more about the author go to his website at:

www.harrypenny.com

A collection of over 300 cartoons based on the experience of a real Female Training Officer and her befuddled male trainee. These cartoons are not limited to location.

They occur worldwide with every law enforcement agency. Claude's cartoons have hit the locker room walls of the LA Sheriff's Dept., San Francisco PD, Texas Highway Patrol and many others and also appear in The STAR & SHIELD Professional Peace Officers publication. He was a training officer for 7 of his 12 years at Firestone Sheriff's Station along with Harry Penny. Go to his website at: www.claudejanderson.com

Let me guess . . . you cleared the shotgun inside the vehicle?

To order call BOOKMASTERS at (800) 537-6727 ($20. for each or $35. for the pair plus s/h)